

FACULTY OF LAW
University of Belgrade

MASTER in European Intergration

EU Environmental Policy and Law

Aspects of Human Rights

Course Reader

Edited by:

Prof. dr Stevan Lilić

Asst. mr Mirjana Drenovak Ivanović

Belgrade
April-May 2011

TABLE OF TOPICS

I. The Right to a Healthy Environment as Fundamental Human Right

- Tim Hayward, Constitutional Environmental Rights, University Press, Oxford, 2005, pp. 1-14.

II. Development of Environmental Policy and Law

- Alexandre Kiss, Dinah Shelton, International Environmental Law, Transnational Publishers, 2004, pp. 39-63.

III. The United Nations and Environmental Policy and Law

- Alexandre Kiss, Dinah Shelton, International Environmental Law, Transnational Publishers, 2004, pp. 106-126.

IV. Environmental Policy and Law in the European Union

- Maria Lee, EU Environmental Law – Challenges, Change and Decision-Making, Oxford and Portland, 2005, pp. 1-23.

V. The Aarhus Convention (three pillars of environmental protection: access to information, participation of public, access to justice)

- Ludvig Krämer, EC Environmental Law, 6th ed., 2007, pp. 149-162.

- Stevan Lilic, The Aarhus Convention and Access to Justice in the European Union and Serbia, European Integration Studies – Research and Topicalities, Institute of Europe, Kaunas University of Technology, Kaunas (Lithuania), No. 1, 2007, pp. 7-14.
- Mirjana Drenovak Ivanovic, Implementation of the Aarhus Convention in Serbia, European Energy and Environmental Law Review, Wolters Kluwer, april 2011, pp. 58-71.

VI. Public Participation in Environmental Issues

- Stuart Bell, Donald McGillvray, Environmental Law, 7th ed., 2008, pp. 293-325.

VII. The Kyoto Protocol and Agenda 21

- Ludvig Krämer, EC Environmental Law, 6th ed., 2007, pp. 335-340.

VIII. The Basel Convention

- Alexandre Kiss, Dinah Shelton, International Environmental Law, Transnational Publishers, 2004, pp. 603-613.

IX. Council of Europe and Environmental Policy and Law

- Alexandre Kiss, Dinah Shelton, International Environmental Law, Transnational Publishers, 2004, pp. 127-129.

X. European Convention on the Protection of Human Rights and the Right to Healthy Environment

- Tim Hayward, Constitutional Environmental Rights, University Press, Oxford, 2005, pp. 165-177.

XI. Convention of Civil Liability Caused by Hazardous Activity

- Alexandre Kiss, Dinah Shelton, International Environmental Law, Transnational Publishers, 2004, pp. 293-297.

XII. Primary Sources of European Environmental Policy and Law

- Ludvig Krämer, EC Environmental Law, 6th ed., 2007, pp. 4-29.

XIII. Secondary Sources of European Environmental Policy and Law

- Ludvig Krämer, EC Environmental Law, 6th ed., 2007, pp. 50-51 and pp. 54-56.

XIV. Environmental Policy and Law – Comparative Approach

- Jonas Ebbeson, Access to Justice in Environmental Matters in the UK, Kluwer International, The Hague, 2002, pp. 20-41.

XV. Role of Non-Governmental Organizations and Environmental Policy and Law

- Alexandre Kiss, Dinah Shelton, International Environmental Law, Transnational Publishers, 2004, pp. 163-168.

Nota Bene

This Course Reader, EU Environmental Policy and Law – Aspects of Human Rights – is prepared for students taking the Master in European Integration (POGESTEI) Course at the Law Faculty of the University of Belgrade (www.ius.bg.ac.rs/tempus).

The Course Reader is structured according to curriculum topics with corresponding source texts. This Reader is an upgraded version of the previous Reader.

The Editors